What is La Permanence?

La Permanence offer 24 hour working spaces at 3 different sites across the city.

It's not a library, but can be really useful for last-minute essays or if you just prefer to work when traditional libraries aren't open.

For students, it's free to sign up but it costs 1.20€ per hour but it is 1.50€ between 14h and 18h.

You can check the availability of each site at any time on la-permanence.com

There are also many facilities there including free wifi and group working rooms.

How do I sign up?

- 1) Create your account online - Using the link in bio
- 2) You will then receive a QR code which will allow you to access the space
- 3) When you get there, scan your QR code when you enter, and then again when you leave

N.B. Billing is automatic, after your visit, you will be charged the amount corresponding to the duration of your session

Where are they?
